BIOGRAPHY

- : Brian's music spans many musical genres. His composing style has been shaped by a wide variety of influences.
- : Brian grew up around musicians. His father sang and played clarinet in a jazz band. Naturally clarinet was Brian's first instrument. He studied with James Wegg, Nepean Symphony Orchestra Conductor. He has expanded the list of instruments he plays to include guitar, string bass, drums, saxophone, piano and a full array of keyboards and samplers.

1976 - 1979 - Private clarinet lessons throughout high school and a member of Ottawa Summer Orchestra

1982 - 1986 - Played guitar and wrote songs in bands in Ottawa.

1986 -1989 - Composer, audio-post engineer/ producer for tv programs and tv and radio commercials for Sound Venture Productions in Ottawa.

1989 - 1990 - Continued composing independently.

1990 - Wrote songs and played in bands in Toronto. Signed to Francis Davies, The Music Publisher.

1993 - Moved to Vancouver, continued composing for tv, film and video games.

2000 - Signed to Nettwerk Records with an international release under the band name Lester with song writing partner Scott Arkwell aka Vinyl Ritchie.

Currently composing for many award winning productions. Brian has compiled an extensive list of talented musicians to draw from ranging from rock to orchestral.
